Post-Graduate Diploma Programme of Continuing Professional Development for Special Education Teachers– 2018/2019

To: The Managerial Authorities of Recognised Primary, Secondary, Community and Comprehensive Schools
And
The Chief Executives of Education and Training Boards

Introduction

In order to assist all schools and educational services in meeting the needs of students with special educational needs, a post-graduate diploma programme of continuing professional development will be offered to teachers in September 2018.

1. Programmes 2018/2019

In the school year 2018/2019, this post-graduate diploma programme of continuing professional development will be offered in the following centres:

- Dublin City University, Institute of Education, DCU St Patrick’s Campus, Drumcondra, Dublin 9, DO9DYOO (115 places available)
- Mary Immaculate College, South Circular Road, Limerick, V94VN26 (50 places available)
- School of Education, National University of Ireland, Galway (30 places available)
- St. Angela’s College, Lough Gill, Sligo (50 places available)
- University College Cork, Cork (25 places available)
- School of Education, University College Dublin, Belfield, Dublin 4 (25 places available)

2. Funding

Funding for the programmes in the above Colleges/Universities is provided to each centre by the Teacher Education Section of the Department of Education and Skills.
3. Aim and Content

The aim of the programme is to provide substantial theoretical and practical continuing professional development for teachers working with students with special educational needs thereby, to contribute to the school’s overall capacity in this area. Qualifications will be awarded, by the Colleges/Universities involved, to participants who successfully complete the programme. Participants will be assessed on the basis of full attendance at the programme venue, successful completion of selected tasks and written assignments (and examinations where relevant), supervision of their work in schools/centres and final evaluation. Further details will be made available to applicants by the individual College/University.

4. Duration and Organisation

The programmes are of one academic year’s duration. Applicants should note that there will be a total of eight weeks’ release from schools/centres for attendance at the relevant programme venue and the remainder of the year will involve teaching in participants’ own educational settings. There will be some variations between the participating Colleges/Universities in terms of organisation, assessment and title of awards. All of the programmes listed below provide qualifications recognised by the Department of Education and Skills in the area of special education for teachers in the following roles: Special Education Teacher (SET), Teacher in a Special School and Teacher in a Special Class.

5. Colleges/Universities

   - (a) DCU Institute of Education, DCU St Patrick’s Campus, Drumcondra, Dublin 9, D09DYOO (www.dcu.ie)

     This programme provided by the School of Inclusive and Special Education leads to the award of Graduate Diploma in Inclusive Education, Learning Support and Special Education. It runs from September 2018 to June 2019 and involves a blended model of delivery incorporating block release from school/centre for eight weeks, on-line learning and attendance on four Saturdays during the year. In order to participate in the programme, teachers will need access to a computer and broadband internet access. Particular expertise has been developed within the programme that relates to the inclusion of students in primary, post-primary and special schools (for example, those with severe and profound general learning disability) and other education centres. Further details are available at https://www.dcu.ie/inclusive_and_special_education/index.shtml. Applicants should apply using the online application form which is available, at http://www4.dcu.ie/inclusive_and_special_education/GDILS-Application.shtml. Please follow the instructions, ensuring that all required information is available before commencing this process. If it is not possible to use the online form, paper copies of the form attached to this circular will be accepted.

   - (b) Mary Immaculate College, South Circular Road, Limerick, V94VN26 (www.mic.ul.ie)

     This programme, which is organised by the Department of Educational Psychology, Inclusive and Special Education, leads to the award of a Graduate Diploma in Special Education, accredited by the University of Limerick. The course runs from September 2018 to May 2019 and involves block release from school/centre for designated periods (a total of eight weeks), and four Saturdays. Those considering participation in this programme should contact the college for more details in relation to block release. Further details are available on the College website. Contact details are available at Appendix 2.

   - (c) National University of Ireland, Galway (www.nuigalway.ie)

     This programme provided by the School of Education, leads to the award of a Postgraduate Diploma in Special Education. It runs from September 2018 until May 2019 and involves release from schools/centres for designated block periods (a total of eight weeks over the academic year) to attend lectures and workshops at the University. In addition, teachers will be required to attend lectures and workshops at the University on four Saturdays. The programme also includes supervised work in the teachers’ own schools/centres and supported ongoing study throughout the year using a variety of modes of content delivery. Further details are available on the College website at [http://www.nuigalway.ie/colleges-and-schools/arts-social-sciences-and-celtic-studies/education/initial-teacher-education-programmes/professional-development-programmes/special-needs-education/ - d.en.63811](http://www.nuigalway.ie/colleges-and-schools/arts-social-sciences-and-celtic-studies/education/initial-teacher-education-programmes/professional-development-programmes/special-needs-education/ - d.en.63811)

     Contact details are available at Appendix 2.
(d) St. Angela’s College, Sligo (www.stangelas.nuigalway.ie)

This programme is organised by the Centre for Special Educational Needs, Inclusion and Diversity (CSENID) and leads to the award of a Post-Graduate Diploma in Special Education, accredited by the National University of Ireland, Galway. It runs from September 2018 until May 2019. The course is based on a combined approach of block release from school/centre for a total of eight weeks, four Saturdays of face-to-face tuition, distance learning, together with supervised work in the teachers’ own schools/centres. The programme also includes supported ongoing study throughout the year using a variety of modes of delivery. The programme structure comprises five modules, one of which is a specialist study module that focuses specifically on the areas of Specific Learning Disabilities, and Autism. Those considering participation in this programme should contact the college for more details in relation to block release. Contact details are available at Appendix 2.

(e) University College Cork (www.ucc.ie)

This programme is provided by the School of Education, UCC, and leads to the award of a Postgraduate Diploma in Special Education. It will run from September 2018 to May 2019 and involves a total of eight weeks block release from school/centre, four Saturdays, distance learning and supervised work in the teacher’s own school/centre. Contact details are available at Appendix 2.

(f) University College Dublin, Belfield, Dublin 4 (www.ucd.ie)

This programme, provided by the School of Education, leads to the award of the Graduate Diploma in Special Education. It will run from September 2018 to May 2019 and involves a blended model of delivery incorporating block release from school/centre amounting to a total of eight weeks, four Saturdays of collaborative workshops and seminars and ongoing supervised work in the participant’s own school/centre. Those considering participation in this programme should contact the college for more details in relation to block release. Contact details are available at Appendix 2.

6. Eligibility

Please note that all teachers must be registered in accordance with Section 31 of the Teaching Council Act, 2001. Please refer to the Teaching Council website www.teachingcouncil.ie for further information.

Candidates should note that evidence of having completed Garda vetting is required for participation in the course.

This programme is open to all serving teachers who are employed in a position funded by the Department of Education and Skills and who provide Special Education Teaching in recognised Primary schools, Post-Primary schools, and other recognised Educational Services. Teachers serving in special schools and special classes are also eligible to apply. The programme is designed specifically to assist teachers in meeting the learning and teaching needs of students with special educational needs. Potential applicants must therefore have a teaching role in relation to students with special educational needs. Please refer to the circulars listed in Appendix 1 for information on the qualifications necessary for Special Education Teaching posts at Primary and Post-Primary levels and qualifications necessary to teach in Special Schools.

Please note that in order for teachers to be eligible to take up a place or continue on the course the necessary hours and facilities to enable full participation must be provided in their own school setting. It is particularly important that teachers participating in the Programme are given a work-load which will permit them to benefit fully from the continuing professional development being offered.
(a) Primary:

Teachers will be required to forward a copy of their Registration Certificate or Confirmation of Registration letter\(^1\) from the Teaching Council, when submitting their application form. If the “Education Sector(s)” field is blank, teachers will be required to provide evidence that they have qualifications suitable to teach in either the mainstream primary sector or to teach students with special educational needs.

Applicants from Primary Schools should have successfully completed their probationary period in accordance with the requirements as set out by the Teaching Council in their publication Procedures for Induction and Procedures and Criteria for Probation and hold a position in a sanctioned post in an area of special education or be taking up such posts in September 2018. For the purpose of the course, teachers will need to deliver a range of programmes related to the learning and teaching of students with special educational needs.\(^2\) Teachers’ timetables must also include periods during which they are working with small groups of students. Collaborative practices, such as team-teaching, can also form a part of these arrangements.

(b) Post Primary

Teachers will be required to forward a copy of their Registration Certificate or Confirmation of Registration letter (see footnote 1 below) from the Teaching Council, when submitting their application form. If the “Education Sector(s)” field is blank, teachers will be required to provide evidence that they have qualifications suitable to teach in either the mainstream post-primary sector or to teach students with special educational needs in the post-primary sector.

Applicants from Post-Primary Schools should have successfully completed their Induction and Post Qualification Employment (PQE).

Applications are invited from recognised second-level schools/centres that have been allocated special education teaching supports or officially sanctioned special classes. The person nominated must be a teacher eligible to hold a permanent post in recognised second level schools. In order to be eligible for the programme, teachers must spend a minimum of 11 hours per week including in-class support working with students who have special educational needs. For the purpose of the course, teachers will need to deliver a range of programmes related to the learning and teaching of students with special educational needs. Teachers’ timetables must also include periods during which they are working with small groups of students. Collaborative practices, such as team-teaching, can also form a part of these arrangements. At least four class periods should be allocated to teaching individuals or groups of not more than six students. Additional time should also be made available for consultation with parents/guardians and colleagues. Together with work in numeracy, assigned hours must include at least 4 class periods per week of literacy work (maintaining a focus on developing pupils’ literacy skills related to reading, writing, listening and speaking)

(c) Special Schools

Teachers will be required to forward a copy of their Registration Certificate or Confirmation of Registration letter (see footnote 1 on page 4) from the Teaching Council, when submitting their application form. If the “Education Sector(s)” field is blank teachers will be required to provide evidence that they have qualifications suitable to teach either in the mainstream primary or post-primary sectors or to teach students with special educational needs in the primary or post-primary sector or to teach in special school settings.

Applicants from Special Schools should have successfully completed their probationary period in accordance with the requirements as set out by the Teaching Council in their publication Procedures for Induction and Procedures and Criteria for Probation and hold a sanctioned post in a Special School or be taking up such posts in September 2018.

1. Confirmation of Registration letter is available to download from the Registered Teacher Login Facility on the Teaching Council website www.teachingcouncil.ie
(d) Other Educational Service

Teachers will be required to forward a copy of their Registration Certificate or Confirmation of Registration letter (see footnote 1 on page 4) from the Teaching Council, when submitting their application form. If the “Education Sector(s)” field is blank teachers will be required to provide evidence that they have qualifications suitable to teach either in the mainstream primary or post-primary sectors or to teach students with special educational needs in the primary or post-primary sectors.

Applicants must have successfully completed their Induction and probationary period/PQE in accordance with Teaching Council requirements and be recognised as being eligible for permanent appointment in a primary, post-primary or special school. Applications are invited from qualified teachers employed by ETBs as literacy and/or numeracy tutors in Youthreach, Community Projects or in the Prison Service and who are assigned to Special Education work for a minimum of 11 hours per week. At least four class periods should be allocated to teaching individuals or groups of not more than six students. Additional time should also be made available for consultation with parents/guardians and colleagues. Together with work in numeracy, assigned Special Education hours must include at least 4 class periods per week of literacy work.

7. Applications and Selection

Applications must be returned to the College or University of choice by 5pm on 2nd of March 2018.

Applicants should retain evidence of postage.

Priority will be given to teachers who meet the criteria and who have not already attended a similar post-graduate programme for Learning Support teachers or teachers of students with special educational needs recognised by the Department of Education and Skills.

Generally, only one application per School/Centre will be considered.

Candidates should note that some institutions require applicants to attend for interview.

It is intended that, on those programmes which accept primary and post-primary teachers, an equal number of places will be allocated to each group but the ratio may be modified in response to demand and local circumstances.

The selection of participants from the eligible applicants will be a matter for the College/University authorities.

8. Programme Fees

No fee or registration charges will apply for applicants eligible under the terms of this Circular.

9. Extra Personal Vacation

No extra personal vacation will be allowed in respect of attendance at the Programme.

10. Substitution

Substitution, which must be approved by the managerial authority of the school/ETB, will be allowed. The substitution must be deemed necessary to cover the approved periods of absence of the teacher from teaching duty for attendance at the course. Documentation from the College/University specifying the absence details must be retained by the school. It should be noted that paid substitution cover will not be provided by the Department of Education and Skills where a teacher takes personal leave during the block release element of the programme.
11. Salary Arrangements

   All teachers on block release under the terms of this Programme will continue to receive their salary in the usual way.

   Please note that successful completion of this programme will not result in any entitlement to additional remuneration from the Department of Education and Skills.

12. Travel and Subsistence

   Please note that there will be no reimbursement of any travel or subsistence expenses incurred by participants in the Programme which is the subject of this Circular.

13. Masters Programme

   Those who successfully complete the Post-Graduate Diploma Programme of Continuing Professional Development for Special Education Teachers, and who meet entry requirements, are eligible to seek admission to a Masters Programme provided through the institutions listed in section 1 of this Circular. Further information is available on individual institutions’ websites, details of which are available at Appendix 2.
