Community and Comprehensive Schools
And
The Chief Executives of Education and Training Boards

Post-Graduate Diploma Programme of Continuing Professional Development
For Special Education Teachers, 2021/2022

Introduction

In order to assist all schools and educational services in meeting the needs of students with special educational needs, a post-graduate diploma programme of continuing professional development will be offered to teachers in September 2021.

Programmes 2021/2022

In the school year 2021/2022, this post-graduate diploma programme of continuing professional development will be offered in the following centres:

- Dublin City University, Institute of Education, DCU St Patrick's Campus, Drumcondra, Dublin 9 (115 places available)
- Mary Immaculate College, South Circular Road, Limerick (50 places available)
- School of Education, National University of Ireland, Galway (30 places available)
- St. Angela's College, Lough Gill, Sligo (50 places available)
- School of Education, University College Cork, Cork (25 places available)
- School of Education, University College Dublin, Belfield, Dublin 4 (25 places available).

Funding

Funding for the programmes in the above Colleges/Universities is provided to each centre by the Teacher Education Section of the Department of Education.

Aim and Content

The aim of the programme is to provide substantial theoretical and practical continuing professional development for teachers working with students with special educational needs thereby, to contribute to the school's overall capacity in this area. Qualifications will be awarded, by the Colleges/Universities involved, to participants who successfully complete the programme. Participants will be assessed on the basis of full attendance at the programme venue, successful completion of selected tasks and written assignments (and examinations where relevant), supervision of their work in schools/centres and final evaluation. Further details will be made available to applicants by the individual College/University.

Duration and Organisation

The programmes are of one academic year's duration. Applicants should note that there will be a total of eight weeks' release from schools/centres for attendance at the relevant programme venue and the remainder of the year will involve teaching in participants' own educational settings. There will be some variations between the participating Colleges/Universities in terms of organisation, assessment and title of awards. All of the programmes listed below provide qualifications recognised by the Department of Education in the area of special education for teachers in the following roles: Special Education Teacher (SET), Teacher in a Special School and Teacher in a Special Class in recognised Primary, Post-Primary schools or other recognised Educational Services.

Covid-19

Applicants should be aware that HEIs may need to continue to operate under Covid-19 restrictions for the 2021/22 academic year which may necessitate amendments to the delivery of certain elements of the programme as required, in order to abide with the prevailing Government health advice at the time.

Colleges/Universities

DCU Institute of Education, DCU St Patrick's Campus, Drumcondra, Dublin 9, DO9DYOO (www.dcu.ie)

This programme provided by the School of Inclusive and Special Education leads to the award of Graduate Diploma in Inclusive Education, Learning Support and Special Education. It runs from September 2021 to June 2022 and involves a blended model of delivery incorporating block release from school/centre for eight weeks, on-line learning and attendance on a maximum of four Saturdays during the year. In order to participate in the programme, teachers will need access to a computer and broadband internet access. Particular expertise has been developed within the programme that relates to the inclusion of students in primary, post-primary and special schools (for example, those with severe and profound general learning disability) and other education centres. Further details available at https://www.dcu.ie/inclusive_and_special_education/index.shtml. Contact details are available in Appendix 2. Applicants should apply using the online application form which is available, at <http://www.dcu.ie/ise/gdils> Please follow the instructions, ensuring that all required information is available before commencing this process.

Eligibility

Please note that all teachers must be registered in accordance with Section 31 of the Teaching Council Acts, 2001-2015. Please refer to the Teaching Council website www.teachingcouncil.ie for further information.

Candidates should note that evidence of having completed Garda vetting is required for participation in the course.

This programme is open to all serving teachers who are employed in a position funded by the Department of Education and who provide Special Education Teaching in recognised Primary schools, Post-Primary schools, and other recognised Educational Services. Teachers serving in special schools and special classes are also eligible to apply. The programme is designed specifically to assist teachers in meeting the learning and teaching needs of students with special educational needs. Potential applicants must therefore have a designated teaching role in relation to students with special educational needs. Please refer to the circulars listed in Appendix 1 for information on the qualifications necessary for Special Education Teaching posts at Primary and Post-Primary levels and qualifications necessary to teach in Special Schools.

Please note that Teachers must have on their weekly timetables, a minimum of 11 Special Education Teaching (SET) hours allocated to the school by the DES. This can be in the form of individual small group or in-class support for the students in respect of whom they were allocated.

Primary:

Teachers will be required to forward a copy of their Registration Certificate or Confirmation of Registration letter¹ from the Teaching Council, when submitting their application form. If the “Education Sector(s)” field is blank, teachers will be required to provide evidence that they have qualifications suitable to teach in either the mainstream primary sector or to teach students with special educational needs.

Applicants from Primary Schools should have successfully completed their probationary period in accordance with the requirements as set out by the Teaching Council in their publication Procedures for Induction and Procedures and Criteria for Probation and hold a position in a sanctioned post in an area of special education or be taking up such posts in September 2021. For the purpose of the course, teachers will need to deliver a range of programmes related to the learning and teaching of students with special educational needs.² Teachers’ timetables must also include periods during which they are working with small groups of students which are organised to address identified special educational needs. Collaborative practices, such as team-teaching, can also form a part of these arrangements.

Post Primary:

Teachers will be required to forward a copy of their Registration Certificate or Confirmation of Registration letter (see footnote 1 below) from the Teaching Council, when submitting their application form. If the “Education Sector(s)” field is blank, teachers will be required to provide evidence that they have qualifications suitable to teach in either the mainstream post-primary sector or to teach students with special educational needs in the post-primary sector.

Applicants from Post-Primary Schools should have successfully completed their Induction and Post Qualification Employment (PQE).

Applications are invited from recognised second-level schools/centres that have been allocated special education teaching supports or officially sanctioned special classes. The person nominated must be a teacher eligible to hold a permanent post in recognised second level schools. In order to be eligible for the programme, teachers must spend a minimum of 11 hours per week including in-class support working with students who have special educational needs. For the purpose of the course, teachers will need to deliver a range of programmes related to the learning and teaching of students with special educational needs.

¹ Confirmation of Registration letter is available to download from the Registered Teacher Login Facility on the Teaching Council website www.teachingcouncil.ie

² Please see the following links for definitions of Special Education as described in DES Circulars https://www.education.ie/en/Circulars-and-Forms/Active-Circulars/cl0013_2017.pdf and https://www.education.ie/en/Circulars-and-Forms/Active-Circulars/cl0014_2017.pdf

Teachers' timetables must also include periods during which they are working with small groups of students which are organised to address identified special educational needs. Collaborative practices, such as team-teaching, can also form a part of these arrangements. At least four class periods should be allocated to teaching individuals or groups of not more than six students. In addition to the 11 SET hours outlined above time should also be made available for consultation with parents/guardians and colleagues. Together with work in numeracy, assigned hours must include at least 4 class periods per week of literacy work (maintaining a focus on developing pupils' literacy skills related to reading, writing, listening and speaking).

Special Schools

Teachers will be required to forward a copy of their Registration Certificate or Confirmation of Registration letter (see footnote 1 on page 6) from the Teaching Council, when submitting their application form. If the "Education Sector(s)" field is blank teachers will be required to provide evidence that they have qualifications suitable to teach either in the mainstream primary or post-primary sectors or to teach students with special educational needs in the primary or post-primary sector or to teach in special school settings.

Applicants from Special Schools should have successfully completed their probationary period in accordance with the requirements as set out by the Teaching Council in their publication Procedures for Induction and Procedures and Criteria for Probation and hold a sanctioned post in a Special School or be taking up such posts in September 2021.

Other Educational Service

Teachers will be required to forward a copy of their Registration Certificate or Confirmation of Registration letter (see footnote 1 on page 6) from the Teaching Council, when submitting their application form. If the "Education Sector(s)" field is blank teachers will be required to provide evidence that they have qualifications suitable to teach either in the mainstream primary or post-primary sectors or to teach students with special educational needs in the primary or post-primary sectors.

Applicants must have successfully completed their Induction and probationary period/PQE in accordance with Teaching Council requirements and be recognised as being eligible for permanent appointment in a primary, post-primary or special school. Applications are invited from qualified teachers employed by ETBs as literacy and/or numeracy tutors in Youthreach, Community Projects or in the Prison Service and who are assigned to Special Education work for a minimum of 11 hours per week. At least four class periods should be allocated to teaching individuals or groups of not more than six students identified as having special educational needs. Additional time should also be made available for consultation with parents/guardians and colleagues. Together with work in numeracy, assigned Special Education hours must include at least 4 class periods per week of literacy work.

Applications and Selection

Applications must be returned to the College or University of choice by 5pm on 11th of March 2021. Where postal applications are required, retain evidence of postage.

Priority will be given to teachers who meet the criteria and who have not already attended a similar post-graduate programme for Learning Support teachers or teachers of students with special educational needs recognised by the Department of Education.

Generally, only one application per School/Centre will be considered. Candidates should note that some institutions require applicants to attend for interview.

It is intended that, on those programmes which accept primary and post-primary teachers, an equal number of places will be allocated to each group but the ratio may be modified in response to demand and local circumstances.

The selection of participants from the eligible applicants will be a matter for the College/University authorities.

Programme Fees

No fee or registration charges will apply for applicants eligible under the terms of this Circular.

Extra Personal Vacation

No extra personal vacation will be allowed in respect of attendance at the Programme.

Substitution

Substitution, which must be approved by the managerial authority of the school/ETB, will be allowed. The substitution must be deemed necessary to cover the approved periods of absence of the teacher from teaching duty for attendance at the course. Documentation from the College/University specifying the absence details must be retained by the school. It should be noted that paid substitution cover will not be provided by the Department of Education where a teacher takes personal leave during the block release element of the programme.

Salary Arrangements

All teachers on block release under the terms of this Programme will continue to receive their salary in the usual way.

Please note that successful completion of this programme will not result in any entitlement to additional remuneration from the Department of Education.

Travel and Subsistence

Please note that there will be no reimbursement of any travel or subsistence expenses incurred by participants in the Programme which is the subject of this Circular.

Master's Programme

Those who successfully complete the Post-Graduate Diploma Programme of Continuing Professional Development for Special Education Teachers, and who meet entry requirements, are eligible to seek admission to a Master's Programme provided through the institutions listed in section 1 of this Circular. Further information is available on individual institutions' websites, details of which are available at Appendix 2.
