NEPS are producing some very useful guidelines, hand-outs and tips for teachers and parents. NEPS will be publishing these guidelines on our platform on the Department of Education and Skills (DES) website, http://www.education.ie on an ongoing basis. The latest set of topics relate to Language skills. There are two hand-outs and 4 good practice guides in this batch and they all relate to supporting children with language difficulties. The bulk are for use in primary schools, but there is a hand-out that is specific to the post-primary context.

The above can be accessed on the Resources and Publications page of the NEPS platform on www.education.ie
