Appendix A – Categories of personal data

Purpose: data items related to individual teachers are included in the DTR return to provide inspectors with sufficient information to plan inspections and to support statistical research and analysis.

Data Item	Purpose – additional notes	Comment
Teacher/Tutor name	To identify teacher/tutor associated with a class period and/or subjects
Teacher Reference Number (internal school reference number)	Used to decode the data in File C (Details of Timetabled Classes) to enable the DTR data to be processed and made available to inspectors.	The teacher reference number is an administrative reference number used in schools and used by schools administrative software packages. It cannot be used on its own to uniquely identify an individual teacher. It is used by the Inspectorate in the processing of the DTR return to decode the data in File C (Details of Timetabled Classes) In conjunction with the teacher’s forename and surname it can be used to identify a teacher in a particular school. It is not removed as part of the pseudonymisation process as it is required to construct timetable information from the DTR return.
Teacher Name (Surname & forename)	For use by inspectors in planning and undertaking school inspections. Required to construct inspection timetable.	Refer to Storage period: Teachers’ names are pseudonymised when the data is no longer required for inspection planning purposes.
Teacher Gender	To support balanced inspection planning
DES Payroll number	To support statistical research and analysis	The payroll number will be used for the purposes of supporting statistical research and analysis including the development of a Teacher Supply – Demand Model. The DES payroll number will be removed as part of the pseudonymisation process.
Qualifications	To support inspection planning
Post	To support inspection planning [Promotional post held by individual]
Capacity	To support inspection planning [Employment status of individual]
Jobsharer	To support inspection planning [Employment status of individual]
